

The Education Law Association

Announces

the First Annual

Steven S. Goldberg Award for Distinguished Scholarship in Education Law

The Steven S. Goldberg Award for Distinguished Scholarship in Education Law is presented annually in recognition of an outstanding article, book, book chapter, or other form of scholarly legal writing in the field of education law.

Criteria:

- A work of scholarly excellence that has an impact on education law
- Published within the past two (2) calendar years prior to the deadline for nominations

Procedure:

Nominations must include three copies of a cover letter stating the justification for the nomination and three copies of the nominated work. Self-nominations will not be accepted. The award is granted on the basis of merit as determined by the selection committee. Send nominations to the Education Law Association / 300 College Park - 0528 / Dayton, OH 45469.

Deadline:

Submissions must be received by July 1, 2007.

Members of the Education Law Association or another professional association with a focus on education law, such as the American Association of Law Schools Education Law Section, are encouraged to submit nominations. The author's status as a member of such an organization is not required.