Who do we serve?

We serve three divergent constituency groups from across the country: Attorneys, Professors, and School Administrators.

Together, our professional community anticipates trends in educational law, collaborates on practical approaches to these trends, and supports scholarly research through the highest value print and electronic publications, conferences, seminars, and professional forums.

The Premier Source of Information on Education Law Since 1954.

Where are we located?

Since 1997, the Education Law Association has been headquartered at the University of Dayton in Ohio.

Who is ELA?

We strive to promote interest in and the understanding of the legal framework of education and the rights of students, parents, school boards, and school employees in primary as well as higher education institutions.

Our current membership includes:

- Faculty in schools of law and schools of education
- Public and private school administrators in K-12 and higher education
- School board members
- Attorneys

Since 1954, our members have provided a collaboration of perspectives, creating a unique and practical source of information for those in the field of education and law.

How do members benefit?

- Networking and collaborating with other education law professionals
- Access to up-to-date education law information that affects your profession and opportunities to publish or present on your area of expertise
- Access to the SLR Express, a searchable online case database
- Monthly Issues of the School Law Reporter, plus an annual case index
- Quarterly Issues of ELA Notes
- 35% discount on all ELA publications
- Conference, seminar, & webinar discounts
- Discounts and special offers on education law-related items

What does ELA do?

Annual Conference

Discuss the latest education law issues, and hear from experts around the world at the ELA Annual Conference.

For years, our annual conference has brought together professionals interested in education law and provided a forum to discuss current education law issues with experts from around the world.

Visit www.educationlaw.org/conferences.php.

Publications

We publish informative books on education law topics. Visit www.educationlaw.org for a complete list of our publications.

- Professors use our books as textbooks in their course curriculum.
- Attorneys use our books as reference points for their cases.
- School Administrators use our books to keep up-to-date on current laws and regulations for their schools.

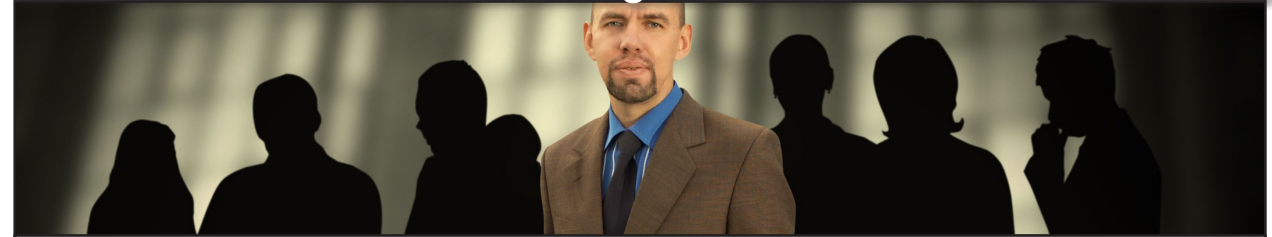

Online services

- Webinars: Learn from experts and earn CLE and CEU credit from the comfort of your home or office. We offer quarterly webinars on hot topics, with discounts for ELA members.
- Members-Only Listserv: Participate in online discussions with other professionals in the field of education and law. Join the ELA listserv, and find us on Facebook and LinkedIn.

ELA keeps you informed on the latest developments in education law and how those developments may affect you!
