

Administrators' Guide to Employment Law and Personnel Management in Schools

Section I – Introduction and the U.S. Legal System

- 1 – Introduction: Mark Paige, Adam Ross Nelson
- 2 – The U.S. Legal System: Charles Russo, Allan Osborne

Section II – Federal Law

- 3 – Academic Freedom: Ralph Sharp, Gretchen Oltman
- 4 – Sexual Harassment in the Workplace: M. David Alexander, Jennifer Sughrue
- 5 – Federal Antidiscrimination Law: John Rumel

Section III – State and Local Laws

- 6 – Evaluations: Lynn Rossi Scott
- 7 – Documentation: Kelly Frels, Janet Horton, Lisa McBride
- 8 – Teacher Dismissal: Evan Mense, Nathan Roberts, Kenneth Lane
- 9 – Collective Bargaining in Public Schools: Justin Bathon, Richard LaFosse
- 10 – Teacher Certification: Tina Chang, Sean Maguire, William Sparkman
- 11 – Student Injury: Suzanne Eckes, Jesulon Gibbs-Brown

Section IV – Applying the Law to Practice

- Sample Cases for Class Exercises: Mark Paige, Adam R. Nelson

Mark A. Paige and Stephen Ross Nelson (Editors.)

No. 99 in the ELA Series

Softcover and E-book, 224 pages
ISBN 978-1-56534-186-9

Member Price: $29.24 Retail: $44.99

This reference—drawing heavily from chapters adapted from the Education Law Association's popular The Principal's Legal Handbook 6th Edition—provides practical, up-to-date information for current and aspiring school administrators, as well as school law attorneys and professors of education law. It includes a comprehensive review of federal antidiscrimination laws, as well as providing several hypothetical cases intended to serve as learning platforms to apply legal concepts.

Published in January 2018, this convenient text addresses the wide range of legal issues affecting school personnel

Order print copies online at the ELA Bookstore, www.educationlaw.org, or call 216-523-7377. Ebooks are now sold through Amazon.com.